VIRTUAL GROUPS:

Recorded Relaxation with Karmin: Take a moment for yourself and listen to this audio recording to help you relax. Relaxation.mp3 The link is also provided on our website.

“Writing For Your Life” is a peer lead group facilitated by Lyn. They are welcoming new participants! This creative writing group is currently focusing on freewriting and then discussion. They meet by phone on a three-way call, via SaskTel, every second and fourth Saturdays of the month at 2:00 p.m. If you are interested in joining or learning more about WFYL please let staff know and we will link you to the facilitator of the group for more information.

Peer Support via Zoom: Our Peer support is offered to support the personal well-being of our members with a focus on individual resilience, including discussions about strengths and challenges while fostering connections to others who may be in similar circumstances and to community resources. You must pre-register so we can send you the link for Zoom to participate. Email: karmin@cmharegina.com

Member Zoom Chats: Every Thursday morning staff will set up Zoom in the club so we can chat with members from approved homes and others who cannot come down to the club. You must pre-register by email. Send your info to: suzanne@cmharegina.com you will be sent the link to Zoom the day before.

Supporting Anxiety: Every Friday morning Suzanne will be offering in person and Zoom Supporting Anxiety classes simultaneously. If you would like to participate in-person or virtually, please register with Suzanne at suzanne@cmharegina.com

Our Club hours of operation will change beginning June 21, 2021. As of June 21st the club will be open for “Drop ins” from 9:00 am until 11:30 am and 2pm until 3:30pm with a maximum of 10 people in the building. Please note, You will still be able to make an appointment if you prefer.**

Thank you so much for your continued support and patience as we transition to our slow, steady and cautious reopening!
